From Rome:

By train: from the main station of Roma Termini, changing in Chiusi; the journey from Chiusi to Siena is particularly picturesque, and the experience in itself is a dip into the last century. It's an old railway line that runs slowly through the beautiful hills of the Crete Senesi with fixed stops at every village. The Agriturismo Marciano is easily accessible from Siena railway station in 5 minutes by taxi (Euro 10 to 12).

Average travel times from Rome: 4 - 5 hours

By bus: directly from the bus station of Roma Tiburtina (easily accessible by Metro or taxi) to the railway station at Siena; from the Railway Station at Siena, Agriturismo Marciano is just 5 minutes by taxi (Euro 10 to 12).

Average travel times: approx. 3 hours

By car: from Rome take the highway Autostrada A1 in direction of Florence; exit the highway at Val di Chiana, and take the double carriage way to Siena; once in Siena, continue following directions to Florence and exit at Siena Nord; follow the signs to the city centre, until you drive along Via Fiorentina; keep driving along Via Fiorentina until the roundabout, and just before the roundabout take the first on the right signposted Marciano; follow this road until the small church of Marciano; then turn into Strada della Befana; at the end of a small road lined with century-old cypress trees, enter the big red gate on the left: welcome to the Agriturismo Marciano. Follow the signs and park in our large private car park. Average travel times: between 2 and a half and 4 hours (depending on traffic)

From Florence:

By train: from the Railway Station of Santa Maria Novella, changing at Empoli; from Empoli to Siena the local train ("treno regionale") stops at all the stations. Travelling by train from Florence to Siena is worth just if you have a seasonal or Eurail pass.

Agriturismo Marciano is easily accessible from Siena railway station in 5 minutes by taxi (Euro 10 to 12).

Average travel times: between 2 and 2 and a half hours

By bus: from the bus station of Florence (next to the Railway Station Santa Maria Novella), arriving in the centre of Siena -Piazza Gramsci.

The best coach is the one that says Siena rapida, with no stops in-between. From Piazza Gramsci you can reach Piazza Matteotti (30 metres away) where you can find taxis to get to Agriturismo Marciano in 5 minutes (Euro 8 to 12). Average travel times: 1.20 - 1.30 hours / min

By car: coming from the north or from the south of Florence, driving along Autostrada A1, exit at Firenze Impruneta and take the toll free highway to Siena; once in Siena, exit at Siena Nord; at Siena Nord follow the signs to the city centre, until you drive along Via Fiorentina; keep driving along Via Fiorentina until the roundabout, and just before the roundabout take the first on the right signposted Marciano; follow this road until the small church of Marciano; then turn into Strada della Befana; at the end of a small road lined with century-old cypress trees, enter the big red gate on the left: welcome to the Agriturismo Marciano. Follow the signs and park in our large private car park.

Average travel times from the exit of Firenze Impruneta: between 1 hour and 1 hour and a half (depending on traffic)

From Pisa:

By train: from the Railway Station at Pisa Centrale, changing at Empoli; from Empoli to Siena the local train ("treno regionale") which stops in all the stations. Agriturismo Marciano is easily accessible from Siena railway station in 5 minutes by taxi (Euro 10 to 12).
